Junior Advisor Application 2017

The office of Junior Advisor of a District of the Organization of Triangles, Inc. is a very demanding, yet rewarding position. You will be representing your district and its membership at Triangle and Advisory Council meetings, as well as helping to plan and run Leadership Weekend in the summer of 2018 and the Biennial Convention in 2017 and 2019. You will be entirely responsible for planning and coordinating a District Convention in your District in 2018. This position requires dedication to the organization and your commitment for the entire two year term is necessary. Travel is required and although the dates of visits are not set this early in advance, you can expect to need to dedicate at least 3 weekends per year to Advisory Council meetings, several evenings per month for conference calls and of course additional time to spend with your Triangle sisters at District Conventions, Installations and regular meetings. This will require sacrifice on your part regarding other aspects of your life.

Are you willing and able to take on this commitment for the ensuing term, October 2017-October 2019?

YES NO
